In the Gospel reading, a rich man believes he must do many things to inherit the kingdom of God and that he has done all of them. Jesus, however, teaches that only one thing is necessary: to follow Jesus. One cannot carry heavy baggage around while following Jesus. One must travel light. This is what the rich man cannot do. He wants to have his possessions (security, prestige) and have Jesus too.

Still, Jesus looks at the rich man and loves him. In Hebrews, the Word of God discerns the thoughts of the heart. The Word is both Scripture, through which God continues to speak, and Jesus Christ, the Word incarnate (as in In 1:14). No creature is concealed from Jesus; we are all exposed or laid bare to his eyes. But the eyes that fully see us look at us, and into us, with love.

The disciples are amazed. How could it be that a man who has faithfully kept God's commandments cannot enter the kingdom of heaven simply because he has many possessions that he doesn't want to give up? Peter protests that the disciples have done what the rich man could not; they have given up everything to follow Jesus. They preferred Jesus to all earthly riches (see Ws 7:8-10). Jesus reassures them that they will receive a hundredfold reward for their sacrifice. As in Wisdom, "all good things" come to the disciples in his company. The surprise is that they will receive it "in this present age" — perhaps through the fellowship and care of their new brothers and sisters in Christ (see Acts 2:44-47; 4:32-35).

The catch is buried quietly in the last line: "with persecutions." Following Jesus is an abundant, overflowing life, but not one free from suffering.

Remembrance

We give thanks for the times we had with our loved ones, both the ups and the downs of living life, but most of all we're grateful for love which is stronger than death. Help us to bear our sorrow without bitterness, to look forward slowly, one day at a time and to gain some comfort from those who can help us ease our pain... Be with us now as we encourage and support each other. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

From Father's Desk

Our hearts were crowded with gratitude as we celebrated the Children's Festival. We came together with great joy and eagerness, for we were truly grateful to you, our God, for all that we have been given. Amen

I especially would like to thank our volunteers, staff, and community members for all their wonderful generosity. Every year, you help our parish thrive whether it be with the use of your talent, your donations, or simply helping decorate and clean up. Its these things that keep our parish functioning. Thank you, once again for your labor of love.

With love,

Father Gerardo

Special Collection for World Mission Sunday on October 19th & 20th

Always celebrated on the second to last Sunday of October. World Mission Sunday is a special day that unites Catholics worldwide in prayer, solidarity, and support for the Church's mission efforts. This year's theme, chosen by Pope Francis, is rooted in the Gospel of Matthew: "Go and Invite Everyone to the Banquet," reflecting the inclusive and urgent call to bring God's love to everyone. Join us in this universal mission to spread the Gospel and invite all to experience the joy of Christ's message! You will find the blue envelopes on the entrance tables for the next 2 weekends. You can turn in your blue envelope in the regular collection basket or in the collection boxes. Thank you for your generosity, every dollar counts.
