There was very little in the prophets or in John's preaching to prepare Israel for the tiny child who made his first public appearance when his mother took him to the temple for the purification rite prescribed by the law. Jewish custom considered a woman who bore a son to be unclean for seven days. After the boy's circumcision, she spent an additional thirty-three days becoming purified of her blood, following which she presented an offering in the temple.

What is remarkable in this story is the reaction of two old wise people. When they look at the child, they see the salvation of Israel, the Messiah who has come to redeem the world.

Simeon confidently describes the child's destiny and the joy and sorrow that Mary will feel. Anna's worship bursts forth into proclamation about the child to anyone who will listen.

The good news seemed unbelievable, for most of the Jews believed that the Messiah would be a great warrior, bringing God's justice and righteousness to a sinful nation. Even the preaching of John the Baptist pointed to someone greater than he. Could this infant really be the promised one?

Groundhog Day is based on a Catholic Candlemas tradition that dates back to the Middle Ages: "If Candlemas Day is clear and bright, winter will have another bite. If Candlemas Day brings cloud and rain, winter is gone and will not come again."

2025 Annual Catholic Appeal

Your participation in our Annual Catholic Appeal accomplishes something very simple yet very powerful: It touches people’s hearts with God’s love through your gift and deepens our collective faith. By contributing to the Advancing Our Mission campaign, you are helping our brothers and sisters to truly know and love Jesus Christ, his grace, and his mercy.

This year our parish is expected to contribute $9,416.00 to the 2025 Annual Catholic Appeal.

I understand the last year has been economically challenging, but I am confident that we can reach this target and possibly exceed it. Any amount we receive over our target will be returned to our parish for our use. Your participation, regardless of the amount, makes a difference. Your generosity brings hope and joy to all those who benefit from your gift. Be assured of my gratitude for your support and of my continuing prayers for you and your loved ones.

Envelopes will be available next weekend for this collection; you can also donate online.

Online Giving: Just visit sdcatholic.org/giving
