Join us to Pray the Rosary 30 minutes before each mass!

This Sunday's Old Testament readings present a strong even harsh — contrast between putting our trust in God and in other people. Neither the prophet nor the psalmist, however, intends that we not seek relationship with those around us. At stake here are how we ground ourselves, understand our value, and find our truth. If we look to God, in whose image and likeness we are made, for our authority and authenticity, we will be able to turn outward in solidarity with others.

Luke's Gospel presents Jesus' teaching on the kingdom of God. What we find across these "blessings" and "woes" are reversals that challenge what society often dictates to be status or success. By contrast, Jesus teaches that those who live in humility and find their authentic selves in this life apart from social conventions — namely, in right relationship with God and others—will know true union with God, both in this life and in the next. The opposite, of course, is also true.

If we seek affirmation and authenticity only in fleeting desires and satisfactions, we will have little foundation on which to stand in relationship to God.

Paul takes the next step by teaching that, on our behalf, Christ took on death and beat it. Further, this victory is only the first fruits. Just as Christ died and was resurrected to eternal union with God, so shall all those who "belong" to Christ. Our hope must lie here. We are to live as if God is our king, and this process of believing and acting will bring about that kingdom. This, in turn, prepares the way for the eternal kingdom and living eternally in union with our Creator.

Fasting and Lent

If you struggle with what to give up for lent; and always manage to do the same thing every year. You are missing the mark. Lent is about learning to lean into the suffering for the greater love of all. Ask yourself what pulls me away from loving God, myself, and others? What can help me work on being more present this Lenten season? Perhaps, you don't need to fast from anything this year, but to add more. Such as, spending more time with your family rather than browsing your social media pages. Whatever it may be, spend a little more time this Lent giving a second thought to your fasting.

To generate a mass intention, please stop by the back of the Pala Mission or contact the Parish Office at (760) 742-3317.

All envelopes are accepted in mass baskets and in the Mission's donation boxes, located at the front of the Pala Mission. We ask for a $10 donation per intention.

Please give 2 weeks' notice. Thank you.

Comuníquese con la oficina parroquial al 760-742-3317 para hacer arreglos para pasar o deja un sobre con su intencione y donación en la canasta de misas o en las cajas de donaciones de la Misión. Pedimos una donación de $10 por intención. Por favor avise con 2 semana de anticipación. Gracias.
