Join us to Pray the Rosary 30 minutes before each mass!

Our Old Testament reading for today is well known to us — likely one we have heard since childhood. Moses, who is tending his father-in-law's flock at the base of Mount Horeb, may be looking for distractions to while away the time when he sees a bush in flames just off the path. What is remarkable is not the burning bush itself but its staying power. The bush is not consumed. As many of us would, Moses decides to check it out. Moses' openness becomes God's cue to call out to him, indeed, to summon him far beyond what he believes himself capable of. Notice that when God calls him by name, Moses responds simply, "Here I am." In Hebrew, this is just one word, hinneni. It is how Abraham responded to God at the ultimate test of his faith (Gn 22) and how many prophets after him also will respond to their call. Once God alerts Moses to the holy ground and identifies himself in the covenantal tradition of Moses' ancestors, Moses lowers his face in fear but remains. Much staying power will be required of him as well in the coming years. God then reveals his intentions to bring the Israelites out of oppression in Egypt into this very wilderness where they will worship God in freedom. Moses is God's chosen prophet and leader. This scene culminates when, at Moses' request, God further reveals the divine name, YHWH, a form of the verb "to be." God is the essence of being, the "I AM," a name so sacred that it should not be uttered. Our reverence is indicated in the address, "LORD."

To generate a mass intention, please stop by the back of the Pala Mission or contact the Parish Office at (760) 742-3317. All envelopes are accepted in mass baskets and in the Mission's donation boxes, located at the front of the Pala Mission. We ask for a $10 donation per intention.

Please give 2 weeks' notice.

Comuníquese con la oficina parroquial al 760-742-3317 para hacer arreglos para pasar o deja un sobre con su intencione y donación en la canasta de misas o en las cajas de donaciones de la Misión. Pedimos una donación de $10 por intención.

Por favor avise con 2 semana de anticipación. Gracias.
