In last Sunday's first reading, Philip did not even understand that seeing Jesus means seeing the Father. Here in Acts, a transformed Philip fulfills Jesus' commission to bear witness to him "in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth" (Acts 1:8). On the Third and Fourth Sundays of Easter, the readings from Acts show Peter witnessing to Christ in Jerusalem. Now, through Philip's testimony, the good news has been proclaimed in Samaria. The Gospel reading brings us full circle back to Philip, His testimony and his powerful works (casting out demons, healing the sick) are the marks of the Holy Spirit's power, received at Pentecost. As Jesus told Philip and his other disciples, he would not leave them orphaned when he left them to ascend to God but would give them an Advocate to remain with them and to bind them in unity to one another and to the Son and the Father. The Acts reading also demonstrates that the gift of the Holy Spirit is for all believers, for Peter and John are sent to Samaria specifically to pray for the new believers to receive the Spirit.

Jesus promised that after his resurrection and ascension, the Father would send another Advocate, the Spirit of truth, to guide his disciples, to fill them with God's presence, and to remain with them forever. As we prepare to celebrate the sacred mysteries, let us open our hearts to the Spirit of truth, allowing him to animate and direct lives, uniting us more fully with the God we will encounter in this liturgy.
